Foreword

THERE is never a day that passes in our high school that is not marked by some achievement on the part of our students. In any field of activity these accomplishments are produced only through the work and the cooperation of every individual concerned. The staff of the nineteen hundred and forty edition of the Nautilus has endeavored to bring to you, through pictures and writing, a story showing the background of these accomplishments.

Mr. Andrews

In appreciation and in recognition of his many services to the students of Libertyville Township High School, we, the staff, dedicate this edition of the Nautilus to Mr. Andrews.

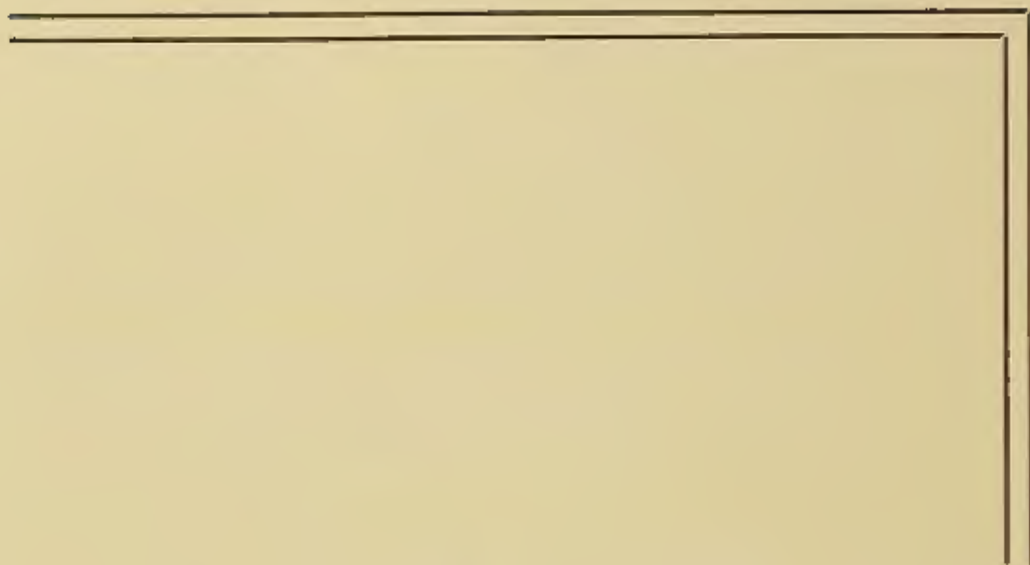

Dedication

We wish to present "Andy" to you as we know him — working with his boys in the shop. In many activities he has always been ready to lend a helping hand, whether it was settings for a play, decorations for a dance, or work on a float. In recognition of these manifold services, we honor Mr. Andrews.

ADMINISTRATION

The administrative force of Libertyville Township High School has many duties to perform. These administrators formulate and execute policies, centering their activities about the word "preparation." It is their duty to plan for the students so that at the end of four years each one may be prepared to assume the duties of citizenship, to associate easily with other members of society, to become a master of his leisure time, to be able to earn a living, and to have a preparation and foundation for further study.

In Libertyville Township High School such administrative responsibilities are entrusted to the principal, Mr. H. E. Underbrink, and the secretary, Miss Ruth Small.

SCHOLASTIC AWARDS

This year the scholastic honors of the graduating class of the Libertyville Township High School were awarded to two girls. Marion Gillespie, with an average of 94.00 is valedictorian of the class of 1940. Peggy Prendergast, with an average of 92.13 is the salutatorian.

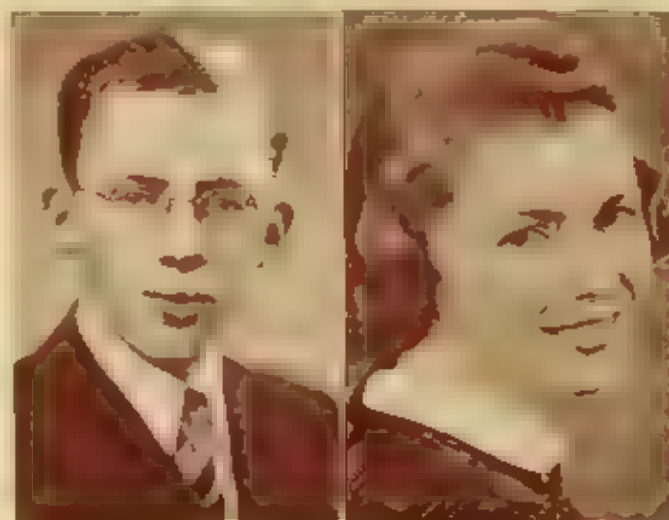

During their high school, both Marion and Peggy have been active in many school organizations. Marion served as secretary of her class in her junior year and is the present editor of the Nautilus. She has been a member of the band and orchestra for four years. Marion has been active in the G. A. A., Drops of Ink, Dramatic Clubs, Library Club and French Club and has had the heroine leads in the junior and senior plays.

Peggy is the present secretary of her class. She has been a member of the band and orchestra for two years. Peggy has been an active participant in the G. A. A. and Drops of Ink.

SENIOR TESTS

Each year tests are given to Libertyville Township High School seniors to determine how much general knowledge they have learned in their four years of high school. These tests are divided into four parts . . . natural science, social science, math, and English.

George BurrIDGE, with a total of 306 points, made the highest score in the 1940 senior achievement tests. Frances Brando was second with a total of 291

Honors

AMERICAN LEGION

Every year the American Legion presents awards to the boy and girl who are considered the most outstanding, the best "all-around" students, of the graduating class. The faculty acts as a committee and chooses these students on the basis of courage, character, service, companionship, and scholarship. From the senior class of 1939, Nancy Howard and Norman Enevold were chosen as best qualified to receive this American Legion Award.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The highest and most coveted honor a high school graduate can secure in four years of study is a membership to the National Honor Society. This membership is awarded for outstanding scholarship, leadership, service, and character. The students receiving this honor must not exceed fifteen per cent of the graduating class and are selected under rigid requirements by a committee of five faculty members.

Those students from the class of 1939 honored with a membership in the Roosevelt chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools were: First row: W. Smith, M. Dorgan, H. Hutchings, M. J. Achen. Second row: K. Elfrink, H. Getchell, T. McCarthy, C. Duell, E. Dorfler. Third row: N. Enevold, P. Kelly, N. Howard, L. Rouse.

NEWSOM AWARD

Each year the Newsom Award is presented to two members, a boy and a girl, of the graduating class who are the most representative of the best in sportsmanship and leadership in school athletics. The purpose of this award is to advance the development of athletics and sportsmanship in our school. Hazel Getchell and Norman Enevold were elected representatives from the class of 1939 to receive the Newsom Award.

On an average of every two weeks during the last school year the students of L. T. H. S. have issued the Drops of Ink. The non staff student sees the paper only in its finished form—but what goes on before that issue is in his hands?

Let us imagine that this is an average two-weeks paper. The editor in-chief, news editor, feature editor, and sports editor put their heads together on the Monday of the first week and decide what's going to happen in the next four weeks that should be written up for the paper. Then the three department heads assign their respective articles and with the editor, keep after the reporters, columnists, feature and sports writers until they finally hand their assignments in.

The writing is not the only work of the paper. The staff typists must see that all corrected copy is typed and given to Mr. Dehl, who makes the final check and sends it down to the printing office, the advertising manager and his assistants are busy selling ads, the photographer takes any pictures necessary. Mr. Crawford sees that there is enough money to put the paper out and Editor Hoskins supervises all and hopes for the best.

Then as the finish to two weeks of hectic work, Editor Hoskins, Sports Editor Lindroth, and Mr. Dehl, on Thursday night, make the dummy, count words and at times even write the stories to fill the empty spaces. (Incidentally, they also consume Mrs. Dehl's doughnuts.)

On Friday, the paper comes out. With each succeeding issue the Drops of Ink has added something or changed something; perhaps its a new type for heads or the adding of a few inches to the length of the paper, or the new "Bits About 'Em" column. No matter what it is, it shows that the Drops of Ink staff is not content with a good paper—they want the best paper they can possibly produce.

COACHING STAFF

Promoting boys' athletics in all its phases is the coaching staff of Libertyville Township High School. Headed by Coach "Art" Bergstrom, these faculty members have succeeded in maintaining good sportsmanship, have built healthy bodies, and have organized strong competing teams in three seasonal sports. Assisting Coach Bergstrom are Andy, Ole, "Larry" Crawford and Kermit Wilt.

Libertyville 20

Woodstock 0

The Wildcats started the season, playing in the new Northeast Conference, by facing Woodstock on September 23. Kelly, P. Brown, and Miller checked in with touchdowns, while fine defensive work came from the rest of the team.

Libertyville 13

Proviso 6

A non-conference game with Proviso was next on the schedule for the Wildcats. P. Brown's beautiful running and Gossell's splendid passing packed the afternoon full of thrills and excitement for the Libertyville fans.

Libertyville 12

Warren 7

The Warren "Blue Devils," were next to fall under the Wildcat machine. Warren thought the game was "on ice" but Miller turned the tide by catching a long pass from Gossell, bringing the ball near the Warren goal. P. Brown provided the thrill of the day by crossing the striped end zone, to win the game in the last few seconds.

Libertyville 6

Arlington 20

The next team Libertyville opposed on the gridiron was Arlington. Jaeger and Whamond were injured during the process of the game and had to be taken out. The Miller-Gossell combination clicked again for another touchdown, thus encouraging the desperate fighters of the orange and black.

Libertyville 7

Niles 21

For the entertainment of the Homecoming fans, the Wildcats staged a furious battle with Niles. Morris came through with the climax by catching a long pass from Wrast to make a touchdown that will be long remembered.

"Red" Jaeger, Captain

"Bud" Brown, All-State

Libertyville 0

According to schedule, the Wildcats' next opponents were Leyden. Libertyville's two great tackles, Whamond and Hoskins, were on the ailing list along with P. Brown. With these regulars out of the play, Leyden didn't spare any mercy.

Leyden 20Libertyville 6

"Red" Jaeger, who had just been elected captain, led the team out to the field with an urge for victory. The Scouts also had the same feeling so the game resulted in a hand-to-hand battle. In the final minutes the Scouts got through the Wildcat defense to put the deciding touchdown in possession of Lake Forest. This game ended the football season for the Wildcats who ended up in fifth place in the Conference.

Libertyville 22

Maine 17

The Wildcats' opening game of the season was played with Maine on November 17. The team made a good showing with Morris making the most points.

Libertyville 24

Batavia 23

Fine competition came from the Batavia cagers, as the score will suggest. Strand's accurate shooting kept the team ahead.

Libertyville 26

Woodstock 23

Libertyville's first conference game was played with Woodstock on November 28. Miller's pivot shots accounted for a lot of the scoring.

Libertyville 22

Waukegan 45

The "Barney Google Shuffle" dance had great influence on the Waukegan cagers because they didn't waste any time with the Wildcats. Rocky Strand came through with the most baskets to lead in Libertyville's scoring race.

Libertyville 16

Crystal Lake 37

The Wildcats had their minds taken off basketball entertainment given by Crystal Lake's local talent. The scoring slacked down because of Crystal Lake's tight defense.

Basketball

Chamberlin, Cherenovich, Miller, Strand, Morris, Brown, Jaeger, Coach Bergstrom.

Libertyville 24

Leyden 21

Leyden's tall boys didn't do so well because Libertyville kept them rebounding under their own basket. The whole team took part in the scoring of this event.

Libertyville 41

Warren 22

The first really easy game that the Wildcats played was at Warren. The whole team had a chance at some action on the floor.

Libertyville 22

Lake Forest 18

Another exciting game took place on Libertyville's floor between the Wildcats and the Scouts. Miller came through with the most points to become the team's leading scorer.

Libertyville 29

Niles 27

Niles' last break didn't bring very good results since the Wildcats were on their toes playing "heads up" basketball. Again Miller came out with the highest score to his credit.

Libertyville 32

Arlington 30

Real fighting spirit was shown in this battle. Some of the boys went as far as using the manly art of boxing. P. Brown made some nice shots to remind the crowd that the game was still basketball.

Libertyville 19

Warren 20

One can not say much about this game except that Warren got a lucky break. Many rebounds that would have won the game just missed the basket.

Libertyville 19

Lake Forest 20

The number nineteen jinx stayed with us at Lake Forest. The game was played in the afternoon and was identical to the Warren game.

Libertyville 30

Leyden 25

The Wildcats showed that they still had a strong spirit when they overtook Leyden in a close game. Leyden's tall boys didn't have much effect upon the 'Cats."

Libertyville 23

Crystal Lake 31

The Wildcats were out to hand Crystal Lake their first defeat for the season; although they didn't accomplish this, they did play their best game of the season.

Libertyville 30

Woodstock 33

Libertyville lost another game to a team which the "Cats" were far superior to—Woodstock, the last place contenders in the Northeast Conference, staged an upset against the "Cats." This game ended the season with the Wildcats sharing third place in the Northeast Conference with Leyden.

The Libertyville Wildcats added another credit to their list of achievements by being runner up in the Waukegan Regional Tournament. The "Cats" won easily over Ela, defeated Lake Forest, and gave Waukegan all they wanted for three quarters. Miller held the tournament scoring honors while Strand came in third. Waukegan and Libertyville, being the champions and runner-up, therefore advanced to the Sectional Tournament held at Elgin, where we were defeated by Sycamore.

TRACK

Many boys reported for track duty before the spring rains had melted the snow and ice off the outdoor track. Coach Crawford had the boys drill on the indoor track, until weather would permit them to practice outside. After a few weeks of hard drilling in the open air, the boys were ready for the Oak Park Relays.

At this meet, the relay team, composed of Enevold, P. Brown, Wilson, and Bell, took the spring medley relay with a wonderful showing to bring Libertyville into the seventh position.

At the next meet, Libertyville and Lake Forest had a hand to hand battle with Lake Forest coming out on top. The Scouts won by a score of 63-59 over the Wildcats.

Libertyville's first major victory on the cinder track was over Waukegan. The Wildcats had a strong team with Enevold and Bell to do the high scoring. This pair scored 20 and 14 points respectively.

The next big event that caused great excitement among the track men was the Palatine Relays. The Wildcats took sixth place with the exceptionally good showing of Enevold and Satterfield.

The Arlington "Red Birds" were the next victims of the "Cats." Libertyville's trackmen didn't show any mercy when they handed the 88-34 defeat to the "Red Bird."

Libertyville took possession of second place in the Lake County meet with an excellent showing by the whole team. Enevold and Swan were high scorers making 10.5 and 7 points respectively.

At the State District, Bell qualified in the 440 with a 51.2 seconds timing. This qualification entitled him to go to the State Finals held at Champaign. Bell is now the school record holder of the 440.

Libertyville next participated in the new Northeast Conference meet and came out in third place. This meet ended a fairly successful year on the cinders for Libertyville's track men. Enevold, Bell, and Brown were the three main factors of the Wildcats' team, each collecting his share of the points in every meet.

G. A. A.

The Juniors and Seniors in G. A. A. got off to a speedy start this year when they participated in "Speedball."

Marjorie Rockenbach, chairman of Speedball, divided the girls into teams and after a "tough fight" one team emerged victorious.

While the upper classmen boldly took part in this sport, the Sophs and Frosh were content to stick to "soccer."

Tumbling . . . that's it . . . tumbling. Under the careful supervision of Patty Perkins the girls literally jumped through their hoops and really enjoyed their stiff arms and legs.

With Edith Enevold handling the situations, the girls came out like "troopers" when they heard the horn for basketball.

After much strong, hard, playing a senior team came out on top.

"Play a good game," was the motto and theme of every girl who played.

Volleyball, surprised us by having an unusually large turn-out. The game was limited to Sophs, Frosh and Seniors.

Under the guiding and skilled hand of Mary Suydam, an expert bowling chairman, the girls learned the fundamentals of the Pin and Ball game.

Bowling was introduced just this year, and the girls said it was a worth while investment.

"Spring" . . . beautiful "spring" and with it comes . . .

Batter up! That's right, baseball! With sure eyed Cleo Cooper setting the pace, the girls played like professionals at the old "bat and ball" game.

Bull's eye! . . . That comment wasn't heard as often as some other expressions, but the girls partook in archery with undying enthusiasm. Marcella Kunke, chairman, stated that a hit and a miss was made by everyone.

Amid hearts and more hearts, the G. A. A. girls gathered 'round in the glimmering candlelight and held their annual Valentines banquet.

Under the very able hands of the Seniors, the girls received a thrill of a lifetime . . . a basketball game between our honorable feminine faculty members and the champion team of the basketball season.

With Joyce Petersen as general chairman, the Junior girls came through in grand style when they gave the annual Spring banquet on April 18.

Farewell, farewell, was the theme and significance of the Farewell Banquet—sponsored by the Sophs in honor of the Seniors. The Seniors stated "that it was not only the most original banquet of the year—but that it was a grand farewell!"

Libertyville Township High School was again the hostess for the yearly playday. With an Eskimo theme carried out, the girls from six surrounding schools, our guests, met and re-met many friends.

With Marcia Macomber, president, and Marcella Kunke, secretary, hailing from Libertyville Township High School, The Tri School Conference was held at Warren High School.

Discussion groups, a speaker on Hobbies, and entertainment from students of Warren, succeeded in making the day a "red letter day" for every girl who attended.

Such a nightmare! The girls wore boots, bathing hats, gym suits, sun glasses, and carried shovels, at the elementary G. A. A. initiation.

This is a traditional "carrying on"—that goes on before any girl can enter the sacred portals of G. A. A.

DRUM MAJOR AND MAJORETTES

Muriel Newman, Doris McKinley, Richard Lyons, Dorothy McKinley, Doris Johnson

Staccato drum beats and blaring horns announced to all that the Libertyville High School Band was on parade. The members, in their regal black and orange, in perfect time and step, took the town by storm. Leading these high-stepping musicians was the new drum major in shining white, Dick Lyons whose snappy baton movements and royal appearance gave the band that "perfect touch."

The grand climax was the four dainty and delightful majorettes who, with perfect rhythm and grace, displayed their clever baton tactics in unison. From the tips of their jaunty hats to the toes of their shining boots they spell high quality entertainment and poise

Band

Little did the audience realize, as they sat in the gymnasium on the evening of December 19, 1939 and listened to the band playing rousing numbers, what was really going on behind the maestro's, Mr. Wilkins, baton. That morning during rehearsal, Mr. Wilkins had fallen off the stage and injured his arm. As a result he was unable to raise his arm high enough for the band members to see it. What fate! Lower and lower descended the music stands as the band members peered futilely over them. So it was with stretched necks and aching backs that the members so successfully portrayed their part of the program.

Blended voices paid homage to Christ at the annual Christmas Concert. The A Capella choir in their black and orange, midst a hushed silence with pale blue lights lighting their serious faces, sang the hymns while Stanley Lindroth acted as reader and between pieces read several selections from the Bible.

Spring brings warm weather, warm weather brings flowers, flowers bring love and love brings music, hence the Spring Concert. The band, tuned up to the highest point possible, rendered several selections, among which was the popular "The Lamp Is Low." The further beauty of this selection was enhanced by . . . charming maidens who gave a harmonious rendition of this lovely love lyric.

Thrills of delight ran up and down the backs of the hypnotized onlookers as the orchestra under the direction of Miss Weissgerber played "The Grand March" from "Aida", and Gould's "Pavanne." This group has progressed to such an extent that the mere mention of its name signifies the best of musical entertainment.

The orchestra itself is enough to quench anyone's thirst for music. The A Capella choir is all that can be asked for where vocal music is concerned. Combine the two of them and you have something that cannot be equalled. And combined they were at the Spring Concert . . . 1940. The selection was "Go Down Moses" and the effect upon the audience was spontaneous. A grand climax for the year's work!

Programs

OCT. 10. Delbert K. Harter, who has visited fifty-eight different foreign countries, islands, and possessions told of his ambition to go through college and the way he accomplished it. Mr. Harter, seeming very eager to share his experiences with us, gave quite an inspiring talk to the student body.

DEC. 4. Two members of our student body, namely, Edith Enevold and Dick Buehrer had a real thrill when Lewis Hoskins, scientist and investigator, selected them for demonstrating television to the students. He also chose Dick Rinal to show to us the art of making up for television. Mr. Hoskins' explanations were very direct and understandable, which made it possible for all of us to gather a lot of information from his talk and demonstrations.

DEC. 21. Mr. Pruth McFarlin, known as one of the best Negro tenors in the country, presented a program of both popular and classical songs. He was accompanied by Mrs. McFarlin at the piano. This particular assembly was a surprise to the students and is sure to be outstanding in the memories of each person.

JAN. 16. Aviation, as explained by Marjorie Rose Gilroy, offers opportunities exceeded by no other vocation. Miss Gilroy first gave an interesting and informative talk which was followed by a movie. Lastly, she answered many of various questions asked her by some of the students.

FEB. 21. Bob Hewitt, a product of Montana, and a graduate of its State University, is an excellent spokesman for the life and surroundings of the real cowboy. During his talk, he led us along a fascinating trail of pleasant discovery and breath-taking adventure in the "lost wilderness" of the romantic West.

MAR. 7. Walter Merhoff, with his very pleasing personality, was the delightful master of ceremonies of the Merhoff Quartet which was headed by the charming Ruth Pryor. Miss Pryor presented a group of dances, and the quartet sang a number of songs. This entertainment, the outstanding program of the year, was very much appreciated by the entire student body.

APRIL 1. The student assembly this year provided very unusual and enjoyable entertainment for the student body. The program was varied, including instrumental solos, vocal solos, duets, readings, and dances.

APRIL 8. According to Dr. James Marshall, economist and naturalist, Australia is in many ways very similar to the U. S. A. Not only did he tell us about the social and economic situation in Australia, but he also gave to us vivid descriptions and pictures of the animals, birds, and vegetation of this continent, Australia.

MAY 21. Jim Wilson, who has traveled all over the world and has become friendly with all kinds of people, gave a very interesting, informative, and entertaining talk about his travels and explorations. Mr. Wilson told us a very spirited and salty tale about his mileage around the world.

JUNE 7. This year, the music department under the direction of Mr. L. M. Wilkins and Miss Marcia Weissgerber, has given a number of music assemblies. The senior choir, the band, and the orchestra have all performed for the student body. Each concert revealed decided progress on the part of each organization.

This year, the Tenth Annual Alumni Homecoming started officially at 8 00 Friday night, October 20, when the snakedance was held. On Saturday, a very gigantic parade, led by the seventy-five piece L.T.H.S. band marched through town. Following this came the big football game, which, unfortunately was lost by the Wildcats to Niles Center. Last, but by no means least, the Annual Alumni Dance was successfully held in the new gym. Mr. Johnson was general chairman of this year's Homecoming Day.

Homecoming

FROSH-SOPH PARTY

To get the freshmen better acquainted with each other and with the sophomores, a gay afternoon party was held for them by the sophomore class. Dancing was followed by an interesting, entertaining movie, and later, refreshments were served.

HALLOWE'EN DANCE

Ghosts, eerie faces, goblins, mystery! This was the atmosphere at the annual Hallowe'en Dance given this year by the junior class. Prizes were given for the best and most clever costumes, but the wearing of costumes was optional. Games were provided for those who did not dance. Music was furnished by those ever popular "James Boys."

CHRISTMAS DANCE

After a great amount of really hard work the Christmas Dance was successfully put on by the sophomore class. In the center of the gym floor was a huge Christmas tree. Many other trees placed in strategic positions throughout the room were very effective toward putting the dancers in the right Yuletide spirit.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER TEA

This year a delightful afternoon tea was given by the G.A.A. members for their mothers to acquaint their mothers with other mothers, mothers with teachers and mothers with G.A.A. and its activities. Entertainment included musical numbers and a reading. After this a tea was served from a beautifully decorated table.

LEAP YEAR DANCE — AFTER EXAM HOP

This year's After Exam Hop was, in truth, a "double feature," since it was at the same time the Leap Year Dance which is held every leap year. The dance was sponsored by the "G.A.A." and the "L Club." The decorations, cardboard boys and girls portraying various games and athletics, were very appropriate. Music was provided by "The James Boys" and Marcella Kunke sang two delightful numbers.

The Social Committee, of which Jimmy Kelly, a senior, is head, suddenly decided that L.T.H.S. was very much in need of another evening dance. To remedy this idea the committee held a dance on February 16th after the basketball game with Crystal Lake. Since no orchestra was available, music was provided by the "turn table," a gift from the senior class of '38.

FROSH DANCE

The Freshman Dance held April 5 was no exception to the fine work that they have done during their first year in high school. The occasion was an exceedingly novel and gay affair.

MAY DANCE

The May Dance sponsored by the senior class was indeed a huge success. With lovely, beautiful floral decorations the gay couples lightly danced over the polished floor.

AFTERNOON DANCES

Many times during the school year, afternoon dances were sponsored by the various clubs and the social committee. This series of dances supplied pleasant diversion from the regular everyday "grind" of school work.

Honors Banquet

The Junior Prom, one of the most important events of the year, was presented this year on May 4. The juniors and seniors danced under a rose colored canopy to the music of Lauret's orchestra. Refreshments were ably served by the ten honor members of the sophomore class.

On May 16, 1940, the sixth annual Honors Banquet was given at the First Presbyterian Church for the honored students of Libertyville Township High School and their parents.

Bill Hoskins, senior toastmaster, introduced the student speakers chosen to represent their classes. They were Lois Treptow, freshman, Harmon Peaco, sophomore; Kevin O'Brien, junior; and Ritarose Leding, senior. Mr. Campbell, of Northwestern University, was the guest speaker of the evening.

SENIOR PLAY

"Pure as the Driven Snow" or "A Working Girl's Secret", the Senior Class Play was indeed a tremendous success. The play was a "mello-dramer" in three acts and followed the trend in this country toward such a type of play. The audience cheered for the hero, hissed the villain, and joined in singing the various songs throughout the play. Under the direction of Mr. M. J. Bergfeld, the play was enjoyable and well portrayed.

The cast included

Purity Dean.....	Marion Gillespie
Jonathan Logan	George Burridge
Zamah Logan	Virginia Simpson
Leander Longfellow	Bill Hoskins
Mortimer Frothingham	Stanley Lindroth
Jed Lunn	Harvey Chamberlin
E. Z. Pickens	Bill Dorlier
Imogene Pickens	Marcella Kurke
Mrs. Ethelinda Hewlitt	Helen Radke
Alison Hewlitt	Helen Meyer
Mrs. Faith Hogue	Marian Meusel
Letty Barber ..	Shirley Mills
Nellie Morris	Mary Biebert

BISHOP MISBEHAVES

STAFFORD, BIEBERT, SCHWANDT, BRANDO, DORFLER, MEUSEL, KANE,
O'BRIEN, HOSKINS, LINDROTH

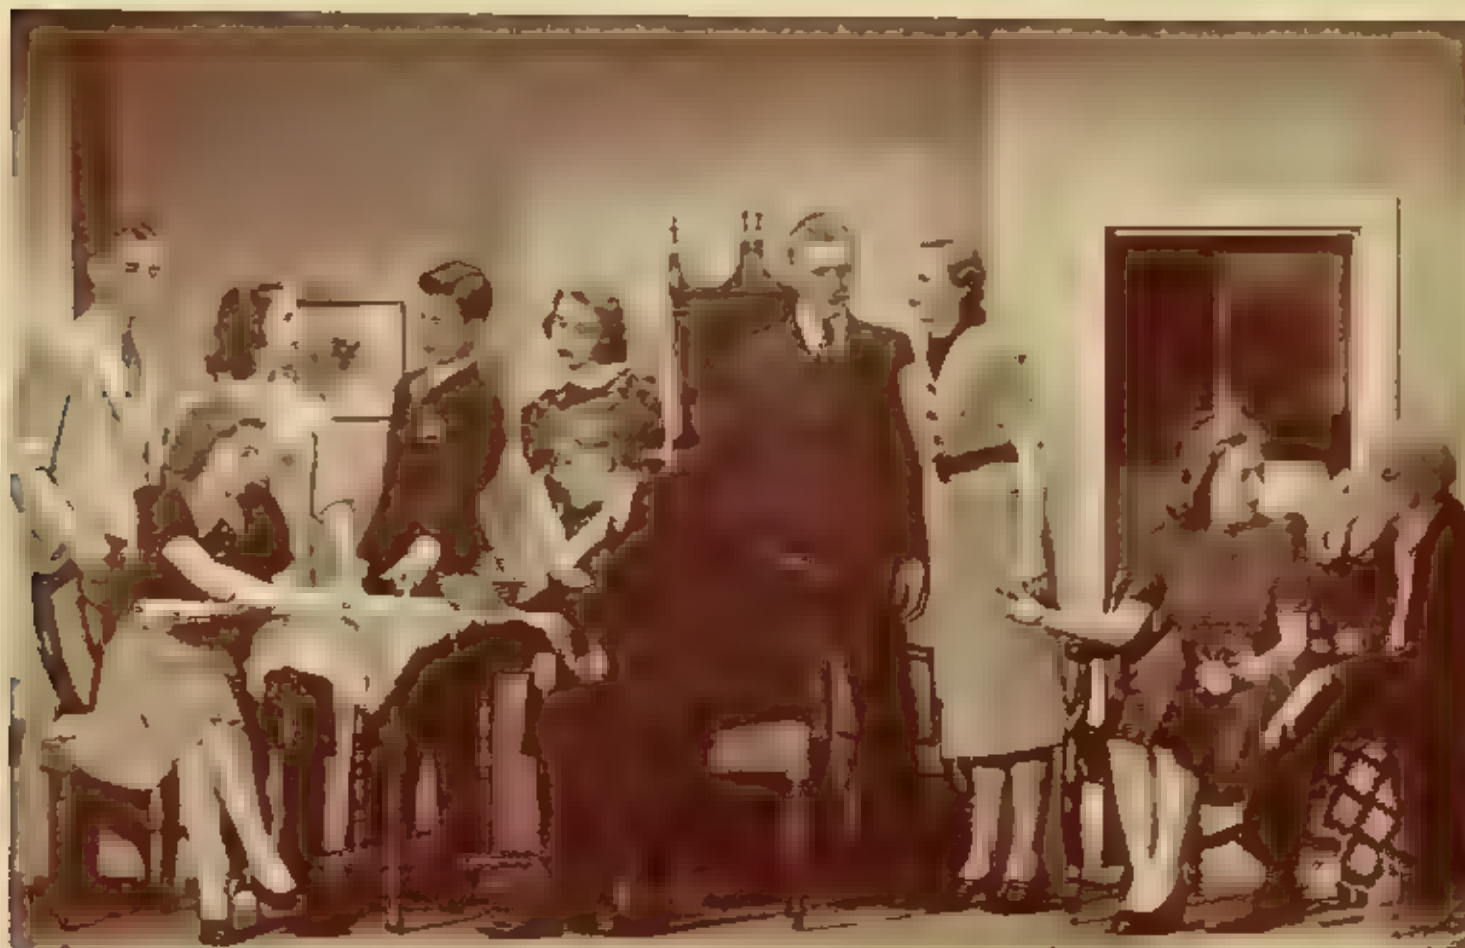

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY

Friday, February 23 was an evening well to be remembered by all those who saw the dramatic club play. "The Bishop Misbehaves," written by Walter Jackson. The scene of the "mystery" is set in England.

The cast included the following:

The Bishop	Stanley Lindroth
Lady Emily Lyons	Marian Meusel
"Red" Reagan	Roger Kane
Donald Meadows	Bill Dorfler
Hester Grantham ..	Frances Brando
Mrs. Guy Waller ..	Mary Biebert
Mr. Guy Waller ..	James Stafford
Mr. Brooks	William Schwandt
Frenchy	Bill Hoskins
Collins	Kevin O'Brien

The great success of the play was primarily due to the excellent directorship of Mr. M. J. Bergfeld.

O BRIEN, ROCKENBACH, JONES, NAEGELE, B. MEYER
WHITE, KANE, DEINLEIN, BERNARD, HEDMAN

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Hats off to the juniors for their excellent portrayal of the famous and lovable Hardy family in the side splitting comedy entitled "Skidding." The cast included the following:

Aunt Millie Genevieve Deinlein
Andy Hardy .	.. Herbert Naegele
Mrs. Hardy ..	Marjorie Rockenbach
Judge Hardy	.. Pat White
Grandpa Hardy	.. Bill Hedman
Estelle Hardy Campbell	.. Blanche Meyer
Marion Hardy	.. Betty Jones
Wayne Trenton III	.. Kevin O'Brien
Myra Hardy Wilcox	Mary Ann Bernard
Mr. Stubbins	Roger Kane

The play, under the able direction of Mr. M. J. Bergfeld, was written in three acts. The setting throughout the play was in Judge Hardy's home.

September

The corridors of dear old L.T.H.S. are again, after a three months' vacation, thronged with the greatest enrollment in history. We number, in all, enmassed, 529 students!! We soon come to the conclusion that there are just too many students and too few lockers. The first week is full of surprises but not only for the frosh, for Mr. Underbrink introduces to us the new faculty members, Miss Ida Mae Gilbert and Mr. Kermit Wilt, and the most wonderful surprise of all—we are blessed with THREE afternoon vacations because of the heat! The Gravel Pit resumes its popularity once again, and we now wish the mornings to be nice and cool while the afternoons to be—well,—hot as blazes! Everything now back to normal, including weather, the Senior Dramatic club meets and elects Jimmy Kelly as president. Our band, in full regalia, gives a splendid concert first hour, and shows us that they haven't lost their technique during the summer months. Mr. Wilt, new yells, and new cheerleaders are introduced at our first PEP meeting of the year. The team travels to Woodstock and defeats them 20-0. The G. A. A. has its annual Big Sister party in the old gym to acquaint the frosh (cute little rascals) with their older and more experienced associates. Hot dogs are sold at the Low price of 5c at the Proviso game. We win 13-6.

Jimmy Dubar: "That prize fight last nite certainly had me all excited."

Clyde Brown: "Did they have a big gate?"

Jimmy Dubar: "You bet, I couldn't get over it."

Carlisle Rasmussen says, "Nowadays, a girl may not be able to thread a needle, but she can tie a beanu."

Marcella Kunke: "Give some girls enough rope and they'll skip with your boyfriend."

Doris Johnson: "Say, how did you make out in that pie eating contest?"

Bob Hoskins: "Oh, Boy came in first and I came in sickened."

October

The new typing students say they will be out job-hunting next week for secretarial positions, as they can now type with four fingers! The football and soccer enthusiasts help us to break all speed records in our first fire drill. The State Inspector comes, and we daren't whisper or pass notes in his presence, course we don't anyhow! Drops of ink begins the mysterious Anti-JEEP Campaign. James Molitor, Shirley Tiffany, Dolores Duba and Arlene Neville are the elected frosh officers. Helen Meyer, Henrietta Duell, Marcello Kunke, and Stanley Lindroth battle out domestic troubles in the play "Thursday Evening" directed by Virginia Simpson. Can you imagine--seventh hour study is dismissed because of a faculty meeting. Oooh-la-la those drum majorettes and that drum major() lead our most 'wunnerful' band at the game with Warren, not Warren Nicholas. We win 12-7, with P. Brown making a last minute touchdown. Frosh are entertained by their soph brothers and sisters with a movie, eats, and mixers. Senior girls, after three years of ignorance, finally learn the rules and regulations of "football" explained carefully to them by Mr. Wilt. In the future they will be able to tell you why so-and-so was given a penalty and that each touchdown counts four points! Glenn Miller's arm sports a strained ligament the reason—the Arlington game. We lost 20-6.

Anyone visiting our abode of learning Wed., Oct. 18, would wonder at the gloomy faces and sad dispositions. Upon inquiring, he soon learns that Report Cards were issued—and we just weren't so "hot"! Just to break the monotony of things, the Stamp Club sponsors the second afternoon dance. The annual Snake Dance (quite in an orderly fashion) is held in the pouring rain. Soaked to the skin but spirits undampened we burn Niles Center in effigy. New dresses, hats, drum majorettes, and wind-blown floats figure in the Homecoming parade. We lose to Niles 21-7.

The following Tuesday the Nautilus advertises for a lost doghouse somehow blown off the truck during the parade. The girls speedball team breaks into Society maybe not on the society page—but they had their pictures on the sports page of the Chicago Daily News! Libertyville vs. Leyden we lose 21-0. We're up—we're down, where? Oh, yes, are you going? You are! Well I never—the Hallowe'en Dance of course! A good time was had by all, even though the boys were practically forced to take us.

Stanley Lindroth's motto "Heaven protect the working girl and heaven help the man she's working."

"She knows her etchings,
She knows her onions,
If a man is wealthy
She ignores his bunions."

William Schwandt

Gloria Biere: "I suppose you heard about the tough luck that happened to Herman the Human Fly?"

Dolores Beitzel: "Did he fail in his screen test?"

Gloria Biere: "Worse than that. His wife swatted him."

Calendar

November

Everything, including wastebaskets, erasers, and chalk, is once again restored after the annual visit of the spooks and goblins. Joe Sperry (The L. T. H. S. Gene Krupa) beats it out at the sophomore assembly program. P. Brown and Red Jaeger, two regular linemen, show off their public speaking achievements at a rousing pep meeting—school is dismissed at 2:00—the reason—we have a game with Lake Forest, and my, what a game! We lose in the very last minute by a score of 12-6. Virginia McMullen shows us a thing or two about the technique of tobacco-chewing in the dramatic club play, "Sparkin'." Others in the cast are Kevin O'Brien, Wilma Schreck, and Mary Biebert. We discover human jitterbugs at the Library Club dance contest. They are none other than—just think—our own classmates—friends—pals—Bill Dortier, Mildred Brown, Bob Hoskins, Doris Johnson, James Keiroy, Norma Robbins, P. Brown, and Marcella Kunke. How do they do it? Stanley Lindroth and James Duba shout that pictures are to be taken for dear old Nautilus. Room 9 is overcrowded with those inclined to throw grapes, bread, bottle caps, and bags during our noon hour relish. Rev. Ziegler gives the upper classmen information on the existing conditions in the slum area of New York. Main Twp. suffers defeat from our "Wildcats" in our first basketball game. New and enjoyable talent is discovered at our Student Assembly program. L. T. H. S. and the rest of the country is a little mixed up over Thanksgiving holidays, so Mrs. Reid comprises and gives us turkey and cranberries for lunch. Bob Whamond and Dorothy Behm say that "even their goose pimples have goose pimples" at our sixth hour pep meeting.

December

Just to begin the month nicely, and set us at ease, grades are turned in the office. The fifth annual Tri School Conference meets at Warren Twp. The presiding officers are Marcia Macomber, president and Marcella Kunke, secretary. Mr. Hoskins (no relation whatsoever to the great Hoskinses of L. T. H. S.) televises on the screen for us the good looking countenances of Edith Enevold and Richard Buehrer. Really, this scientific development does have its advantages and disadvantages. The G. A. A. gives a delightful tea for Mothers and Daughters. "Sleep no more, Macbeth doth murder Sleep," but it was the bell in the case of Carl Jordan in English Literature. Henrietta Duell directs "The Dear Departed" featuring Doris Johnson, William Schwandt, Mary Agnes Prince, James Carney, Dick Lyons, and Ione Jochheim. The "L" Club Debutramps parade the latest styles for summer and autumn wear. One look and we resign our—well, resigned! The Frosh have a Mock Prom, and all by themselves, too. Libertyville vs. Leyden. We win 24-21. Remember when Bob Hoskins shot for the wrong basket? Mr. Underbrink acts as Santa and gives us a surprise assembly program—Mr. McFarlin, singer. Dance. All filled with Christmas party eats, etc. we vacation

Bob Whamond: "Glenn Miller is the kind of fellow who lets everything go to his head."

Doranne Penney: "Hm—no wonder he's always scratching it."

Jimmy Molitor says, "To say the least, is not the woman's way of doing it."

Betty DeVolder: "Most girls consider a man with a cool million pretty hot stuff."

Raymond Johnson: "Honey, I heard you were in a jam so I came over. I'm always on the spot when a feller needs a friend."

Alice Jane Froland: "Well, meet my girl chum. This is a case where a friend needs a feller."

Johnny Olson: "And if a girl is a knock-out, you can be sure she's had plenty of ring experience."

Mr. Russell: "Pal, I hear you never leave the house nights, now that the first baby has arrived."

Mr. Bergfeld: "Yes, Sir. You ought to see that nurse."

Calendar

January

The morning of January dawns bright and snowy as we don our Santa Claus' clothes, and once again enter this institution of knowledge. Miss Bronson opens the first pep meeting of the new year by presenting our basketball team with a kittenish mascot! Mr. Underbrink returns from his Christmas vacation in Sunny Florida. It must have been those atrocious haircuts worn by the L. T. H. S. five that scared the Arlington cagers to defeat. Temporarily dubbed ((We hope) the Fighting Hessians, they win by a score of 32-30. The choir and orchestra give a wonderful concert, and we get out sixth period. Junior and Senior tryouts for the dramatic club play "The Bishop Misbehaves." Libertyville vs. Niles Center in one of the fastest games of the season. We win 29-27. Your pep, your pep, you've got it, now keep it, don't lose it, you'll need it, your pep—and so on into the night—is the new yell introduced by the pep club. A survey of the 315 situation is made. The seniors, namely Frances Brando and Chuck Eckman are in the lead. "Give me liberty, or give me death," "The problem before the house is slavery," "Drugs are the ruination of many people." No, not the Civil War cry, but the voices of our speech class orators. Miss Marjory Rose Gilroy, American Airline Stewardess, gives some inside information on aviation and its vocational opportunities. My, how we would like to choke the person who said "Ignorance is bliss," as we write what we know and DON'T know on the semester exams. As 1940 is divisible by 4, we again have another Leap Year. The G. A. A. and "L" clubs sponsor a Turn About Dance. The girls found that One Big Meal (with reference to Kelly, Jaeger, and Miller) could be a little hard on the purse. Thus ends January.

We begin the month of February by losing a nail biting game to Warren. The score, 20-19. The future of the Libertyville Township High School is assured by 28 votes. Bill Hoskins, our fiery Patrick Henry, spurs us on to a sure victory. Rule and order is upset as the G. A. A. De-icers make their appearance. We wonder if they are southerners going north, or northerners going south. Mary Ann Mohrbacher begins the semester with four straight A's. We dance our cares away, and our defeat too, at the affair sponsored by the Social Committee. You see, we lost to Crystal Lake by a score of 31-23. Five of our faculty members show the G. A. A. girls a thing or two about playing basketball! It seems the teachers followed the 1840 rules, and we just well, we tried hard! All this fun and nonsense took place at the St. Valentine's Banquet. Bob Hewitt, assembly cowboy from Wyoming, tells us stories of the wild and woolly (or is it wooly?) west. G. A. A. sells bows for bow day. The Dramatics Club presents "The Bishop Misbehaves." Stanley Lindroth plays the part of the misbehavin' Bishop, Marion Meusel, his sweet and lovable sister, James Stafford and Mary Biebert portray social climbers, Billy Dorfler, the would-be crook, Frances Brando, the would-be crook's sweetheart accomplice (quite a title), Roger Kane bartends. Others were William Schwandt, Kevin O'Brien, and Bill Hoskins. Debates begin. They tell us that the 29th is Leap Year Day, and so some of us do take the upper-hand.

February

Calendar

Miss Anna Johnson: "Have you contributed anything to the "Old Folks Home?"

Miss Henrietta Aurell "Sure, A bank president and three brokers."

March

March comes in like a lion, and goes out like a—well read and see! The L. T. H. S. cagers win the first round of the Waukegan tournament. "Not Quite Such a Goose" is presented to the Dramatic Clubs by five members of the freshman class. After the first round comes the second, then, we proceed to Elgin where Sycamore vanquishes the "Wildcats" Leonard Geary wins fourth prize in an amateur oratorical contest. Mr. Underbrink announces that because of a "splurge" (he couldn't be convinced that he meant "splurge") in finances we are privileged to hear the Merhoff Quartet with Ruth Pryor in our best assembly of the year. The cast is announced for the senior class "Meller-Dramer." The Ides of March come upon us and present a ten day Easter vacation. Some of us are very glad to see the feminine alumnae visitors. Just as we thought we smelled spring and began to use the old excuse of "spring fever," a blanket of snow descends upon us. "Coach" and three senior boys travel to Champaign for the state finals. During his absence, Mr. Underbrink teaches us the physiology of the "gaiter belt." The Seniors get measured for caps and gowns and some discover that they aren't as big as they thought they were. Oh, almost forgot, March goes out like a lamb—with a heart still bleating.

April

Just to keep up the tradition set by previous calendar writers, and not seem in the least progressive, let us again say that by some strange phenomenon, Fool's Day falls on April first this year. The gym is decorated all greenly and whitely by the frosh, as they play host at the fourth evening dance of the term. We learn from Dr. James Marshall that Australians are definitely "not" under English rule, etc. The assembly lasts a little longer than usual and how we enjoy the upset of schedule. Tired of homeroom programs the seniors entertain themselves with a "de-lousy" community sing. The badminton tournament gets under way. Mary Suydam and Cleo Cooper come out on top. Senior class presents a good old hissy booeey mellerdrama called "Pure as the Driven Snow." The dramatic club presents two plays. The next day we see only one. Wonder why? Drops of Ink sponsors a Sadie Hawkins basket social carried out in real hilly-billy style. "Them purty girls shore can make the divinest vittles!" Our speed demons of the track are host to Niles Center, Waukegan, and Palatine this month. Report cards come out and we realize that there are only six more weeks to go. Many homeroom representatives attend the Girl's Conference at Gary, Indiana. April showers do not forsake us.

May

"May I have this dance?" "Yes, you may." Why of course, that means the Junior-Senior May Prom. Dressed up in our best "refinery" amid ultra decorations we trip the light fantastic at the big event of the year. Delicious punch! Some of us attend the annual Honors Banquet. Most of us don't. G. A. A. has their Farewell Banquet. L. T. H. S. tracksters attend the Lake County and District Meets. Wonders of all, we have another evening dance. The May Dance. Jim Wilson entertains us at our last assembly of the year. Mustard, orange-pop, pickles, and weenies make their debut as picnics get under way. Stuffed, we vacation on Memorial Day.

With seven days, one-hundred and sixty-eight hours, ten-thousand and eighty minutes, sixty-one thousand and eight hundred seconds, we breathlessly await "the end." Those glamorous caps and gowns were evidently not made for coolness and comfort. Seniors finally stand in the front row and actually see the ivy they've been hearing about for three years. Class Night goes off with a Bang! Manfully struggling this last semester to get "B's" in our subjects. We, who are almost alumni, are exempt from exams. It didn't seem possible, but it really happens. Baccalaureate, Awards Day, Exams, and last minute picnics keep us pretty busy. THEN with tassels dangling, knees knocking, and a smile upon our face, we Seniors march across the stage to get those things called diplomas that mark the end of a high school career.

STUDENTS!

The final exams are over and the Ol' Professor has decreed you winner of another round

Dad and Mother have insured your continued success by providing you with the proverbial Book of Knowledge.

But have Dad and Mother heeded the Ol' Professor's words of wisdom and protected their home and savings against loss by carrying adequate insurance on their automobile?

To the Class of 1940

We extend congratulations to you at this graduation time. Your diploma evidences the successful completion of your high school work. We sincerely hope that your plans for the future, whatever they may be, will meet with the same success and that all of your ambitions will be realized to the fullest extent.
